She initially traded between Saint John, New Brunswick and Baltimore, Maryland. The British Royal Navy confiscated her in 1827 as a cartel. The United States Navy captured her in 1829 at Baltimore and she became a merchant vessel. By 1831 her ownership has changed several times. She made several voyages to Africa. In 1835 she began trading between Baltimore and Saint Pierre and Miquelon. She was last listed in 1843. Career Zion probably first appeared in Lloyd's Register (LR) in 1828 with D.Parker, master, R.Robinson, owner, and trade Bristol–Liverpool. She was advertised in 1829. On 11 February 1827 the British brig encountered a French naval convoy off Saint Pierre and Miquelon. The convoy consisted of about 8 vessels, including Zion, which was carrying about 300 bags of coffee from New Brunswick. On 17 February 1827, the British brig detained the convoy. Zion arrived at Saint John, New Brunswick on 17 August 1827. On 27 October 1829 the United States Navy schooner USS Courier captured Zion while she was sailing from Cap-Français, French Guiana, bound for Baltimore. Courier shared the prize money with the schooner. 1st slave trade voyage (1829–1830): Captain Thomas Blissett acquired a letter of marque on 21 March 1829. He sailed from Baltimore on 10 June 1829, bound for West Africa. Zion reached Gorée on 8 September and Tortola on 1 November. She landed about 50 slaves at Rio Pongas on 30 November and also, three days later, landed about 50 slaves at Fernando Po. Captain Blissett put into Henrietta, England on 23 January 1830, where he landed 25 African slaves. He landed more slaves in Rio Pongas on 11 February, in Fernando Po on 8 and 23 March, in Principe, one of the Leewards Islands on 25 March, and in Kingston, Jamaica on 13 May. Zion left Kingston on 3 June and arrived back at Baltimore on 27 June. Return voyage and fate Captain Thomas Bliss
